Re: Cartagena Enterprises Inc. d/b/a Cartagena Publishing v. Universal Music Latino, Universal Music and Video Distribution, Inc., Universal Music Distribution Corp. and Universal Music Colombia, Case No. 07 Civ. 3686

Dear Judge Chin:

We are the attorneys for Defendants Universal Music Latino and Universal Music Group Distribution Corporation. We write this letter, requesting a 45 day extension of time for the close of discovery and a continuance of the December 14, 2007 status conference, with the consent of counsel for plaintiff.

The parties would like to continue to explore whether this matter can be settled amicably. Unfortunately, I have recently had eye surgery which will hamper, if not curtail significantly, my ability to read, review and draft documents. It has also necessitated my being out of the office several days and, follow-up surgery due on December 19, is likely to create additional disruption at least through the end of the year. While the surgery is not serious, it is something of an inconvenience. In addition, there has recently been a change of personnel at the operations level of my clients which makes the process of accumulating documents for discovery and settlement more problematic than might otherwise be contemplated. Consequently, we believe that a 45 day extension to the end of January would be beneficial to all parties and would lead, hopefully, to the use of attorney time in settlement discussions rather than on costly discovery.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
